

Creative Community-Centered Project Planning

Making A Workplan

Using the questions below, develop a written narrative that highlights themes that have come up related to collective values, assets, and vision that sets a course for artist/s selection and developing your work plan.

- What consistency and synergy are you noticing from community conversations?
- Are there common themes in what people have said in conversations about your community?
- Is there is a specific social or cultural issue that comes up across various groups?

Based on your written narrative, project scope and project budget, create a projected spending breakdown in the table below.
